

I enjoy the silence. I want the strictest application possible. I don't want any unsolicited calls to my home phone. I want the law expanded to include political solicitations as well. The bureaucrats employed by the FCC do not have my permission to limit the scope of the laws in New Jersey.